Mr. Albert Crooker, the well-known drug-gist, and apothecary, of Springvale, Me., always advises every one troubled with Rheumatisn to try VEGETINE.

READ HIS STATEMENT: Springvale, Me., Oct., 12, 1876.

Mr. H. R Stevens:-Dear Sir, - Fifteen years ago last fall I was taken sick with rheumstism, was unable to move until the next April. From that time until three years ago last fall, I suffered everything with rheumatism. Sometimes there would be weeks at a time that I could not step one step; these attacks were units often. at a time that I could not step one step; these attacks were quite often. I suffered everything that a men could. Over three years ago last spring I commenced taking VEGETINE, and followed it up until I had taken seven bottles; have had no rheumatism since that time. I always advise every one that is troubled with rheumatism to try VEGETINE, and not suffer for rowers at I have done. This statement is for years as I have done. This statement is gratuitous as far as Mr. Stevens is concerned.

An Afghan Chief. Nearly forty years ago, in South Huntingdon township, Westmoreland, Penn., lived John Hioton. He was an orphau boy, rade and uneducated, and had wandered there from the neighborhood of Masontown, Fayette county. With no known relatives, he was kicked about from one family to another till manhood. Enlisting, then in the regular army, he served in the Florida war. At its close he helped to escort the Cherokees beyond the Mississippi. From Indian Territory he went to New Orleans and shipped as a common sailor on a vessel bound for the East Indies. At the city of Madras, on the western shores of the Bay of Bengal, he deserted and enlisted in a British regiment. He served many years, and during the memorable Sepoy rebellion was noted for his daring himself. He is next heard of traveling in a caravan from Delhi westward across the Indus river through Afghanistan and Persia to Turkey and bravery. At his discharge he was presented with a gold medal by the Governor General back. In time, from trading, he became immensely wealthy, and was the owner of five caravans containing over thirteen thousand horses and camels and fifty elephants. In 1864 he visited Cabul, the capital of Afghanistan, for copper, great quantities of which are there mined and smelted. His magnificent retinue attracted the attention of the Ameer, and he was invited to an audienc3-an honor never before received by a Christian. A present of a hundred of his best horses and a three tusked elephant made the Ameer his eternal friend. When, yearly, it was followed by similar presents, besides camels and merchandise, John Hinton had the mopoly of trade from the summits of the Hindoo Kosh Mountaies to the confines of Beloochisiao, acd in real power was should only to the Amser bimself. About 1870 he was made military commander of the District of Herat, and in 1876 suppressed a local rebellion to the great satisfaction of his sovereigo. Trained in the arts of war among the savages of North America, and among the supersil ious natives of Lodia, where he became "VEGETINE," says a Boston physician, "has thoroughly familir with British soldiers and no equal as a blood puriller. Hearing of its resources, together with his years of service as many wonderful cures, after all other remedies the idolized commander of the Mohammedan tribel armies of Afghanistan, amounting to tens of thousands of half civilized men, he is to-day the ablest soldier of Asia. Desperato from a knowledge of the studied diplomatic chievanery of the representatives of the Empress of ladia, with whom, from fear of treachery, he refuses to treat, acd, as well as the Ameer, bribed with millions of Russian roubles, he will lead the armies of the followers of the Prophe; to vic-

A Woman Goes Derauged on the Cars. "Os Friday aftergood last, passenger train No. 5 left Lynchburg for Bristol on time, and in charge of Cooductor Fairfax. After a run of twenty fire miles a woman, with a little girl about seven years old and an infant of seven months, showed signs of mental abberration. She soon deserted both children and became a raving maniac. She mistook a passenger for ber busbaod, whom, it seems had mistreated her, and which was, it is supposed, the cause of her derangement. Catching hold of the gentleman's beard, she shook her fist in his face and pulled his hair and abased him generally for having descried her for another woman. The man appealed to Captain Fairfax, who endeavored to pursuade her todesist. The woman then turned on him and beat him and stamped on his hat, and hugged and kissed nim, and abused tim in turns. The first victim realized the situation and slipped into another car and took a seat with a fat man, and was careful to get on the inside of the seat. Everything was done that could be to pacify the woman, but she commoned to rave in the wildest mauner, and declined to own her children. and pesitively refused to nurse the baby that was orying. At Christiansburg a gentleman got out and bought a bottle of milk and prooured a rubber nipple from a drug store near by, and brought it to the cars. Mrs. Virginia Wa:son, a ledy of this place, was on the train, and being a Christian and kind hearted woman, took charge of the child and put it to sleep. The raving mother was even infuriate at that, and grasping Mrs. Watson, tore her bonnet off and would, doubtless, have seriously injured her had not the gentlemen interfered. The woman became somewhat quiet before roaching Wytheville, her point of destination and was put off there into the hands of citizens at the depot. "From what was learned from the little girl, the woman's name is Bartley, formerly a Miss Cox, of Grasson county. Her bushand had taken her to Orange county, where he mistreated her and associated with another wo. mao. He had fically put her on the cars with nothing but a ticket back to her home, with the parting remark : 'I wish the cars would tust up and brenk your damned neck before you get there." The above is taken from the news columns
